- How many representations did you receive?
- How many of these were online responses?
- how many were postal/letter responses?
- What consultation system did you use to run the consultation?
- Any other engagement opportunities taken during or outside of the consultation period, such as roadshows (and the number of attendees).
- If your last consultation was Regulation 19, how many of those responses commented on the Strategy Section/Core Strategy as opposed to the site's documents, and how many online and postal responses were received related to this?
